The Arena is a good place to hunt for unique clothes and weapon. You will start at F-rank, so you need to clear it in order from F to S. Each rank has 3 different groups of enemies and the HP of your clothes is recovered every time you defeat a group. You will receive money and an undressing-style each time you defeated in the Arena, you should try it again since your progress (item and level) are registered, so you do not need to reload the game. Here is a list of the rewards: Rank F: 3000 Yen and King of the Drunken Fist Rank E: 5000 Yen and Encyclopedia of Real Fighting Rank C: 18,000 Yen and Encyclopedia of Real Fighting Rank C: 18 Pro Wrestling Rank S: 200,000 Yen and Telekinesis for the Common Man In the last group of Rank S, there are 2 masked cosplayers whose clothes you cannot attack, so you need to aim for their headgear. Sticking Things On Other Things Refined a weapon or article of clothing for the first time. See [Little Sister Made Me OP] . Little Sister Made Me OP Refined any weapon or article of clothing up to 999. You will get this trophy in the first playthrough since you need to max out your weapon and clothing items (headgear, top, and bottom) to 999 to prepare for Otaku mode later. If you use the same type of weapon or clothes, it will boost more strength when you upgrade them. You should sell all weapons and items which have strength less than 10 since it will not increase much in upgrading. The armor and weapon in the shops have high stat, so you should buy them to boost your stuff to max. The trophy will pop after your weapon or clothing items, it will give you 10,980 HP for that item, so 32,940 HP in total can save your life on the Otaku playthrough. As story progress, you are allowed to upgrade or sell your stuff.
