If users want to buy or sell items or craft something for their own use, they will have to move to a different website or app such as the website Craigslist or the app Facebook. Facebook Came out with its own version of ROBLOX where users can create their own play spaces and interact with other players in real life. Over the years, ROBLOX has used advertising to generate revenue for their company, which they generate through in-game purchases (microtransactions) or advertisements (which can be annoying for the players). In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.

In 2014, ROBLOX took the block system offline due to an exploit that allowed users to convert infinite amounts of blocks into real currency. They eventually brought it back online after fixing the exploit.

On August 21st 2018, ROBLOX removed the ability to sell hats and shirts on their site. This came after a report that showed a lot of users were scamming each other out of money. The system was redesigned and the hats cannot be re-sold.[45][46]
